BY GEORGE....

Please pay special attention to the Mass schedule this coming week for both Wednesday and Thursday.

Wednesday is the Solemnity of All Saints, a holy day of obligation. Our normal 10:30 a.m. Mass will not be here but we will be gathering at St. Isidore with the students from All Saints Academy to celebrate the Holy Day which is also the patronal feast day of the school. Please feel free to join us for that Mass at St. Isidore. If you find you need an earlier Mass in the morning please feel free to participate in the 8:30 a.m. Mass at St. Jude as that is the time of their usual Mass on Wednesday. Usually St. Jude also has a Vigil Mass for Holy Days but given that that Mass would be on Halloween they will not be having a Vigil Mass for this feast. Both St. Jude and Blessed Sacrament will have an evening Mass on Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. for All Saints Day.

With the following day, Thursday, November 2, being All Souls Day, the grief support group of the Parish asked that we would try something different this year so there will not be a morning Mass on that day but instead we will have a Mass at 7:00 p.m. that evening with a special remembrance for all of those who have died in the past year. If you would like to in a special way remember a loved one or friend who passed away in the past year please feel free to join us for that Mass. Following the Mass there will be a reception for those who wish to stay. Those whom we will be remembering in this special way this year whom we are aware of having passed away in the last twelve months would be:

- James Surman
- Mary Carrothers
- Kathleen "Nan" Haadsma
- Alfred Kowalewski
- John Koepke
- Raymond Karas
- Mary Arndt
- Louis McNamara
- Matthew Heinen
- Patricia Antor
